

Members and Firms

Member News

Sidney P. Gilbert, FAIA, died September 14 at the age of 63. He was a founder of Architects for Social Responsibility and had his own practice, Sidney P. Gilbert & Associates, New York City.

One of this year's Hermes Awards, which recognizes excellence in the lodging industry, went to BBG/Architects in the category, "Best Construction" for its Sofitel New York project, which it completed for Accor. The awards are organized by HTR Eurotrends magazine and MKG Consulting.

Dahlquist and Lutzow Architects, Ltd., was named Distinguished Firm of the Year by AIA Illinois.

Shepley Bulfinch Richardson and Abbott was awarded the 2001 Harleston Parker Award for Architectural Excellence for the firm's multiphase restoration and renovation of the Boston Public Library (originally built in 1895). This year's award is the first time it has been presented to a restoration project.

Congratulations to GLT Architects, St. Cloud, Minn., and NCG Architects Inc., Baltimore, on their 25th and 30th anniversaries, respectively.

MOVES

Paul DeCelles, AIA, as group vice president and architectural practice leader, to Hellmuth, Obata + Kassabaum, St. Louis

David Pecharka, AIA, as director of architecture, to Baker Engineering & Energy, Pittsburgh

Barbara Price, AIA, as vice president and director of federal programs, to LS3P Associates Ltd., Charleston, S.C.

PROMOTIONS

Brian Carter, AIA, to project manager and Bob Hutchinson, AIA, to justice manager, Integrus Architecture, Spo-

The staff of Dahlquist and Lutzow Architects celebrate their selection as Distinguished Firm of the Year by AIA Illinois.

CARTER

DANGERMOND

DECELLES

DEVLIN

HATCH

HUTCHINSON

L'ITALIEN

LOGAN

PECHARKA

PRICE

kane, Wash.

Steve Dangermond, AIA; Jennifer Devlin, AIA; and Marc L'Italien, AIA, to principals, EHDD Architecture, San Francisco

John D.S. Hatch, AIA, to partner, Clarke Caton Hintz, Trenton, N.J.

Samuel S. Logan, AIA, to design principal, LS3P Associates Ltd., Charleston, S.C.

Aaron Shepard, AIA, (Wilmette, Ill.) and Teri Wright, AIA, (Chicago) to senior associates, OWP&P

Hacig Tacvorian, AIA, to senior associate, Einhorn Yaffee Prescott, Boston

Kenneth Wink, AIA, to vice president, Ware Malcomb, Irvine, Calif. ■